Our Coffs Connection

Sue and Lindsay Lieschke

Sue and Lindsay Lieschke love Christian radio. They met while working in commercial radio where Sue was a newsreader, copywriter and presenter in the Central West of NSW and Lindsay was an announcer, program manager and music director. God brought them together and they've now been married 29 years with 3 children.

They both feel blessed with work opportunities in radio, escaping the cold of Orange NSW and moving to the Mid North Coast. On Rhema 99.9, Sue presents Bible readings heard each hour and Lindsay presents "The Word for Today" heard at 6am & 7pm daily. He also produces various other segments for Rhema.

These days Lindsay works at a large variety store in Coffs Harbour serving customers, and he also repairs computers. Sue enjoys art, is involved in painting and sketching, and enjoys modern Christian music.

Like Sue and Lindsay, can we encourage you to be part of the many ways you can help Rhema continue to get God's Word out! Go to rhema999.com.au and click "Get Involved". Whatever you do for God, it may challenge you, be exciting and is a sure blessing to you and others! Thanks Sue and Lindsay for your dedication and service.

I know we shouldn't be surprised, but I get so excited and encouraged when God steps in and provides a blessing before we even ask (Matt. 6:8)!

I mentioned in the last newsletter how I felt God's confident peace when I sensed Him saying, "Do what you can with what you've got and trust Me to do what you can't". This was His encouraging response when a major grant application, that was to drive the new changes at Rhema 99.9, returned unsuccessful. Despite missing out on this grant, God is indeed providing for the changes necessary to better reach our community for Jesus. That great quote from Hudson Taylor comes to mind: "God's work done in God's way will never lack God's provision."

I'm sure you've heard the new station identifiers that promote our new on-air 'image' to the community, including 'Rhema 99.9' (instead of '99.9 Rhema FM') and 'We're for families'. Through God's provision we now also have: a new logo to display in various contexts; a newly rebuilt engaging website; and new web and email addresses for folk to connect with the station via the website and emails to reflect the changes (rhema999.com.au).

On top of all that, Rhema now has an updated vehicle that will display the new logo and promote the new family-friendly media branding. All of these new changes can certainly reflect a measure of advancement for the station and will pave the way for Rhema 99.9 to be seen by the secular community

New Volunteer!

TRICIA NEWMAN

My name is Tricia Newman and I volunteer at Rhema doing Admin. I gave my heart to Jesus when I was 13. I grew up in Sydney where I met my husband Ian and we moved to Wauchope in the 1980s. We have 2 sons who both have partners and we have 3 granddaughters. I have worked in the Aged Care Industry for the past 25 years and I recently retired. I worship at the Beechwood Community Church with a wonderful group of believers and I came to volunteer at Rhema through the advert in the Rhema newsletter. Being able to use my skills for God in my retirement years is an answer to prayer.

Opportunities and New Programs

Is this you?

Rhema has set up a Programming Committee whose job it is to advise us on proposed new music and there are a few more places available for regular listeners. Participants are between 20 and 70 years of age and if you are interested in participating then hurry because only a few positions are left. "Hymns of Praise" took over from our locally produced program of the same name and is a 1 hour program hosted by Newcastle's Keith Davies. It's heard each Sunday on Rhema 99.9 at 7am and 9pm.
